

Requirement	Construction Contractor Daily Use Checklist for HOIST/CRANES/DERRICKS and RIGGING	YES	NO	NA
1910.180	Are operators trained and qualified to operate the equipment to which they are assigned?
1926.550 1910.184	Are all vehicles (including rented cranes) and rigging equipment inspected at the beginning of each shift to assure each vehicle is in safe operating condition?
1926.550	Are all vehicles with defects corrected prior to placing the vehicle in service?
1926.550 1910.180	Does equipment (including rented equipment) have documentation showing it meets OSHA certification and annual inspection requirements?
1926.601	Are back up alarms checked as part of the inspection prior to each shift?
1926.602	Are all personnel on heavy equipment seated (no persons allowed to stand)?
1926.602	Are seat belts provided?
1926.550	Are crane and derrick load charts, operating speeds, special hazard warnings and instructions conspicuously posted in the cab?
1926.550	Is an accessible fire extinguisher of 5BC rating or higher available in the cab?
1926.550 1910.184	Are weight limits, rating capacities and load sized marked on cranes/derricks, attachments and rigging equipment?
1926.550 1910.184	Are weight limits, rating capacities and load sized within the limits of the cranes/derricks, attachments and rigging equipment?
1926.550 1910.184	Are load test certifications available for review?
1926.550	Are barricades erected warning of swing radius dangers?
1926.550	Are nearby power lines deenergized, clearances maintained, removed at safe distance, proper ground used and a person designated to observe clearances?
1926.550	Are proper hand signals understood and posted at the job site?
1910.180	Are tag lines used to keep material from swinging?
1910.180	Is the crane/derrick level and outriggers used?
1910.180	Are supports used under outriggers strong enough to prevent crushing, shifting or toppling under the load to be lifted?
1910.180 1926.550	Are personnel prohibited from standing or passing under a load on the hook and kept clear of loads about to be lifted?
1910.180 1926.550	Prior to lifting the load is the lifting configuration checked for proper balance, the lines are straight and the lifting path clear of obstacles?
Supervisor Signature: _____ PO#/FWR# _____ Date: _____
Company: _____ Comments: _____

